Roberta Valerio

Was born in 1973 in Italy and has been based in Paris since 1998.

She was represented by Grazia Neri in Italy, and now by Focus in Germany, and Photographer.ru in Russia.

An independent photographer since 2001, her work is published regularly in the Italian, French and international press with portraits, architectural and society reportages.

Via photography she explores subjects in society today and, at the same time, she pursues more personal reports.

After Graduating in law at the Bologna University, she worked for one year as black and white printer in Magnum Photos Agency.
